Our broker list

Who are brokers and why do Atom use them?

Good question. First things first. At Atom bank we believe in straightforward banking that fits your needs, so we've chosen to offer secured business loans through our panel of commercial brokers.

Your business is special. Seriously - your business's needs are unique, so the loan you choose should reflect that. By offering our loans through a panel of independent brokers who know the market inside out, you can get an independent view before making what can be a lengthy financial commitment.

Where do I find one of these brokers?

All the brokers below work with us, and will help you apply for one of our loans if it's the right choice for you.

So once I've found a broker, what next?

If we do offer a loan suitable for your business and you want to apply, your broker will send us an application on your behalf. If you meet the criteria, we'll pull out all the stops to process your application as soon as we can.

Obviously, we always want to deliver good news, but if your application is declined we'll always try to let you know why.

Want to get started?

These are the brokers we work with. Get in touch with them to discuss your business needs and what type of loan you're looking for. If we're the right pick for you, we'll be ready and waiting.

*Atom bank is not responsible for any advice or assistance provided by a broker. The brokers we work with are separate companies and any decision to appoint a broker to act on your behalf must be made by you on the basis of your own enquiries. Please note brokers may also charge you a fee for their services.
